world television festival

WHERE GREAT TELEVISION IS BORN.

JUNE 12-15, 2005

What's New At Banff.

There's a whole lot happening at the Banff World Television Festival.

Join red hot award-winning documentary maker Peter Raymont as he discusses his two latest projects, Shake Hands with the Devil: The Journey of Romeo Dallaire and The Killer Cure (a project started in Banff).

Meet an extensive group of international broadcasters who are participating in the C21 Schedule Watch series. Find out what's hot and what's not.

Connect with programmers from around the globe. Banff is the place to interact with executives looking for creative partners.

Banff is the world's most important meeting place dedicated to television content creation. And it's held right here in Canada. Come to Banff and find out what's new on TV.
