FEATURES

- 6 Atom Egoyan's The Sweet Hereafter: Death, Canadian Style In Hollywood movies, the dead are forgotten before the bodies hit the ground. In a number of recent Canadian movies, Crash, Kissed and now The Sweet Hereafter, death is only the beginning, and it is the consequences we are left to live with. By Geoff Pevere
- 12 In the Hour of Twilight: Guy Maddin Gets Melodramatic with *Twilight of the Ice Nymphs Winnipeg's cult favourite returns with a twisted take on 1950s Hollywood melodramas starring Shelley Duvall, Pascale Bussières and R.H. Thomson. By Tom McSorley
- 17 IMAX at 30: An Interview with Graeme Ferguson From one screen at Ontario Place to 136 screens worldwide, Imax has grown into a major industry player, based on a revolutionary method of projecting films invented 30 years ago. By Wyndham Wise
- 24 *Cosmos: The World According to Frappier Roger Frappier, seasoned Quebec producer behind such hits as Le Déclin de l'empire américain and Jésus de Montréal, launches six new filmmakers in his Montreal-based compilation film, Cosmos. By Maurie Alioff
