Library

connecting you to a world of film

The Toronto International Film Festival Group's The Film Reference Library is the ultimate resource for filmmakers, students, researchers, screenwriters, film and television professionals and anyone with an interest in film.

The Canadian Film Encyclopedia is one of The Film Reference Library's most exciting and rapidly growing resources. It features bios, film entries and in-depth filmographies on David Cronenberg, Atom Egoyan, and Patricia Rozema to name just a few.
