

Make your movie! DRAMA PRIZE - SIX NATIONAL AWARDS

Make your next short dramatic film or video. Spend an incredible year learning more about filmmaking and then premiere your new movie at the Local Heroes International Screen Festival. Every year Drama Prize offers cash, service sponsorships and intensive training opportunities to six emerging filmmaking teams across Canada.

Deadline for submissions: December 5, 1994

For information and application forms, call the National Screen Institute at (403) 421-4084 • fax (403) 425-8098

Providing development and production funding in support of Nova Scotia's film and video industry.

Nova Scotia
Film Development Corporation

1724 Granville St., Halifax
Nova Scotia, Canada B3J 1X5

Roman Bittman
Administration and Funding
Tel: 902-424-7177
Fax: 902-424-0617

Cadillac Girls Images

Paint Cans Salter Street Films

Les Secrets de Jérôme Citadel Films

*Theodore Tighout
Andrew Cochran Associates*

HELEN WICKWIRE FOSTER - LOCATION SERVICES TEL: 902-424-7185 FAX: 902-424-0563

FILM IN CANADA

take one

Take One is "sprightly, spunky and handsome."
Bruce Blackadar,
The Toronto Star

Canada's national English-language film magazine can be found in Metropolitan Toronto at these fine book stores and newsstands:

A&S Smoke Shop, Another Story, Art Gallery of Ontario Gallery Shop, The Book Cellar, Book City, The Book Company, The Booksmith, The Book Store York University, C Store, Common Knowledge Books, DEC Bookstore, Edwards Books, Great Canadian News Company, Hollywood Canteen, Latest Edition, Lichtman's News & Books, Longhouse Book Shop, Maison de la Presse, Opening Night Video, Pages, Revue Video, Spadina Smoke and Variety, Suspect Video, Theatrebooks, This Ain't the Rosedale Library, U of T Bookstore, United Cigar Store, Video Annex, and The World's Biggest Bookstore.