Look us up!

Sas•katch•e•wan
(sass-skach'-ew-un)

a.k.a.: "Sask.",
"Breadbasket of the World"

1 Canadian prairie province,
centrally located. Geography:
everything from badlands
and sandhills to seas of forests and wheat. Climate:
hot summers, cold winters

and more hours of sunshine
than anywhere else in North America.

2 Home of a rapidly growing,
independent film and video industry. Ex: in 1996, $26.5
million in indigenous production.

3 Site of diverse, natural
locations for films. Ex:
"Lyddie", "Dukes", "Lost Daughter", "Love and Hate",
"Painted Angels" and "Who Has Seen The Wind".

4 Home to thousands of Saskatchewanians - and to Canada's smallest and (we like to think) friendliest provincial film and video funding agency.
