

For the Best In World Cinema on Video Cassette

353 Danforth - Toronto - 778-5776

TAKE 1 with books and magazines on film

music video dance

performance art

... and much more!

PAGES

Books and Magazines
256 Queen Street West
598-1447

The National Screen Institute's DRAMA PRIZE PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT WORKSHOPS

The NSI offers intensive, hands-on workshops for emerging filmmakers. Spend five days and nights with some of the top names in the Canadian film and television industry, learning how to make your next movie your greatest movie.

Producers: Edmonton, April, FEE: $250
Our team of Industry experts take you through the million and one facets of a producer's role. Learn how to go from concept to conquest.

Writers: Edmonton, May, FEE: $250
Polish your screen writing skills with our experienced story editors and have your story workshopped by professional actors under the guidance of established directors.

Directors: Edmonton, May, FEE: $250
How do you ensure your vision makes it to the screen? Working with professional actors and top directors, develop your skills in this exploration of directing styles.

Pitching: Banff, June, FEE: TBA
Learn how to swim with the big fish in the treacherous seas of any Festival. A sure cure for pitching and moaning!

Past Resource People Include:
John Smith, Sam Grana, Anne Wheeler, Michael Scott, Jim Burt, Stefan Scaini, Lois Siegel, Susan Brinton, Michael Spencer, Ismé Bennie, Glynis Whiting, Richard Davis, Arvi Liimatainen, Jim Murphy, Paul Gratton, Harold Tichenor.

For more information contact the National Screen Institute
(403) 421-4084