

Contents

FEATURES

8. The Fairy Faith: In the Realm of the Little People

John Walker (Strand: Under the Dark Cloth, Utshimassis: Place of the Boss) explores the ancient spiritual world and the devotees of fairies and other-worldly creatures.
By Maurie Alioff

13. Lonely Girl: Su Rynard Charts Ghosts in the Dream Machine

Dream Machine is about the mechanics of star-making, Canadian style. Director Su Rynard followed the rising career of Edmonton-born singer Roberta Michèle from obscurity to the release of her first CD.
By Tom McSorley

16. My Left Breast

At the age of 42, Gerry Rogers was diagnosed with breast cancer. She had a radical mastectomy, but tests showed cancer in her lymph glands. She filmed her harrowing ordeal with chemo and radiation therapy.
By Cynthia Amsden

John Walker's The Fairy Faith cover image of Iris courtesy of Leeds Museums and Galleries (City Art Gallery) U.K./ Bridgeman Art Library

20. Take One's Interview with Roman Kroitor, Master Filmmaker and Technical Wizard

Roman Kroitor, one of Canada's leading pioneers of cinéma-vérité, contributed to the NFB's groundbreaking Candid Eye series and directed the legendary Lonely Boy with Wolf Koenig. He produced countless dramas for the Board and co-founded Imax Corporation. He is interviewed by Take One.

35. Spirits of Havana: A Cuban (Musical) Revolution

Jane Bunnett, considered one of Canada's premiere jazz musicians, and her husband, trumpeter Larry Cramer, tour the island of Cuba in search of musical roots accompanied by an NFB crew led by director Bay Weyman.
By Matthew Hays

FESTIVAL WRAPS

38.

Rendez-vous du cinéma québécois by Claire Valade; Local Heroes Film Festival, Winnipeg by Cheryl Binning; Local Heroes Film Festival, Edmonton by Jack Vermeë; the Images Festival of Independent Film and Video by Jason McBride.

REVIEWS

44. Lauzon/Lauzone By Isa Tousignant

46. Love Come Down By Kathleen Cummins

47. 15 février 1839 By Maurie Alioff

