TAKE ONE

FILM & TELEVISION IN CANADA

Take One is Awesome!

Ron Mann, director/producer
Comic Book Confidential, Twist, Grass.

Take One is the magazine you read to find out what your colleagues are up to.

John Walker,
director/cinematographer
Strand: Under the Dark Cloth, A Winter Tan

*Smart writing about talented filmmakers,
what else do you need?*

Patricia Rozema,
director/writer
*I've Heard the Mermaids Singing,
Mansfield Park*

*Take One has become, without question, the single most important print resource for Canadian film culture. Its several thematic issues have been thoughtful, even provocative, and have helped focus debate and offered new information to those in the field.
The standards demanded of its writers is consistently high.*

Peter Morris, author *The Film Companion, Embattled Shadows:
The History of Canadian Cinema 1895-1939*

Every country needs a national film journal. Luckily we have Take One, my monthly connection to real Canadian thinking about our movies. Indispensable.

Gene Walz, author Cartoon Charlie

Take One has created a strong voice for Canadian independent cinema, unabashedly celebrating our achievements and providing thoughtful commentary on the films and the filmmakers.

Alex Raffé, producer I Love a Man in Uniform, I've Heard the Mermaids Singing, Zero Patience

One of the most essential journals about film and television in Canada

Gerald Pratley, founder of the Ontario Film Institute

*Why not convince your relatives to subscribe like I have and then THEY can finally figure out what you do for a living, and YOU
that FILM is a living that

Peter Wintonick, director/editor
Manufacturing Consent: Noam Chomsky and the Media, Cinéma Vérité: Defining the Moment

I appreciate the care and professional quality of Take One. It gives me a look at the whole range of Canadian film.

Colin Low, director/producer/analyst The Romance of Transportation in Canada, Corral, City of Gold, Moving Pictures.
